Sponsored by Training USA, Inc.

Target Audience

Designed for department heads, supervisors & crew leaders with DOT, public works, streets, roads & bridge, water utility departments who are responsible for agency or individual department storm preparedness and who also may be engaged in storm recovery operations including “away” operations while providing mutual aid.

Also recommended for state and local agency emergency management staff, safety officers, 1st responders, and/or other department leaders.

Workshop Format

Participants are sub-grouped by type of department. Each specialty group is challenged to identify and solve storm preparedness problems common to their division. Real-life “pre-, mid- and post-storm” issues are reviewed to develop proactive storm preparedness checklists for both facilities and field tasks. Best Practices and lessons learned from other state and local agencies will be shared with attendees.

Program Highlights

- Part 1 Personal / Family Preparation
- Part 2 Preparing the Public Agency
- Part 3 Preparing the Public Agency Department
- Part 4 Preparing Your Public Agency Employees
- Part 5 Storm Recovery Safety Issues
- Part 6 Storm Recovery Safety Briefings & Other Training
